Description    Bold, textured surfaces and a unique chromatic earthen effect inherent to each piece make PERCORSI ideal for interior or al fresco living and entertaining. This slip-resistant, color body porcelain stoneware lets a meeting convene inside and then adjourn for cocktails on the deck overlooking the city or a family party kick off in the kitchen and move to the patio area for dessert.

Four natural stone colors in shades of white, beige, black and green stand alone or can easily be combined to form nuanced patterns using the series' array of rectified field and modular sizes.

Further enhancements are the intriguing mosaics created from thin, rectangular strips of varying width and SBN cut from the tile. The mosaic appears intricate, but is mesh-mounted and simple to install either vertically or horizontally on walls or floors.
