Description Extraordinary strength, extraordinary versatility, extraordinary visual and tactile appeal . . . i PORFIDI di MARAZZI owes its inspiration to porphyry stone permeated with crystalline and metallic deposits formed during ancient volcanic eruptions. This dense, frost-resistant through body porcelain stoneware stands up to heavy indoor as well as outdoor traffic. The deep, rich color bands of grays, rusts and greens recreate the layered ore deposits found in nature and add to its organic appeal.

Class 4 durability and high C.O.F. on field and modular tile combine to literally throw open the doors and transition this striking porcelain from interior to exterior floors and walls in either residential or commercial settings. Three colors and sizes with three very different mesh-mounted mosaic decos – 12"x12" Square, 12"x12" Random, 52" x 30" Fan – offer myriad design possibilities. i PORFIDI di MARAZZI is particularly well-suited for public areas such as atriums, courtyards, patios and walkways where slip resistance, strength and stain resistance are important.

As evidenced by millennia, the look of this mighty and primeval material never goes out of fashion; it's just as ideal a solution for today's traditional or contemporary settings as it was for the early palaces of Rome and Constantinople.

Product Data Type: Floor & Wall: Through Body Porcelain Stoneware
